I have carefully read, understood, agreed to and signed the "ALSS Cancellation and Refund Policy" on page two of this document and am returning it with this application.

ALSS, LLC Cancellation and Refund Policy Agreement

To maintain the highest quality of hands-on instruction possible, each ALSS program enrolls a limited number of students. When you choose to enroll in one of these precious slots, and then cancel near the course run date, you prevent other potential students from enjoying the experience. Also, partially filled courses are not economical to run, and we are forced to scramble to try to fill your spot with limited notice.

In addition, while “invisible” to the student, much time and money is spent preparing for you to attend a course. Our cancellation and refund policy reflect the fact that it’s impossible to recover these upfront costs.

Please note that there is a non-refundable $100 processing fee per course.

In addition to the processing fee:

- If you cancel 60 days or less prior to the course dates—half tuition refund in addition to the $100 processing fee.
- If you cancel 30 days or less prior to the course dates—no refund can be given. No exceptions.

Students who leave a course once it has begun due to sickness, evacuation or any other reason will NOT be entitled to a refund. No exceptions.

Students who cancel a course may NOT apply the tuition to another course. No exceptions.

Students who fail to show up on time and miss the course will NOT be entitled to a refund. No exceptions.

If ALSS cancels a course, a full tuition refund will be given. ALSS assumes no responsibility for any additional expenses incurred as a result of cancellation.

Travelers Insurance: Most ALSS courses revolve around Cody as the lead instructor. If Cody gets sick, injured, or your course lacks enough students to run, we will need to cancel the course. For these reasons and others, we recommend that you purchase travel insurance from your airline or elsewhere. Travel insurance can cover a variety of circumstances beyond trip cancellation such as coverage for pre-existing medical conditions, medical expense and evacuation coverage, trip interruption and delay, and coverage for lost, stolen or damaged baggage and more. ALSS assumes no responsibility for any additional expenses incurred by you if we must cancel a course.

I have carefully read, understood, and agreed to the ALSS, LLC Cancellation and Refund Policy Agreement above.
